Saturday June 24th 2017

General entry 9:30am, Official Opening 10:00 am

Auction: 11:00 am

Share a bottomless cup of coffee or tea and food, join in and view a number of different activities, share techniques, tips, try out something new or socialise with fellow woodworkers. Not just limited to woodturning this fair includes activities of:

- Photography (Ron Young/Fred McCann)
- Model making (Tim Smeaton see the Endeavour)
- Scroll Sawing (Graham Hawkins)
- Deep hollowing Jigs (Lindsay Winen & Jake Jacobs)
- Rapid Spinning top manufacture (Roger Humphris)
- Pyrography (Brian Purcell / Anne Kerr)
- Show & Tell
- Some turning timbers for sale from Brett Coolidge

WOODFAST will be in an attendance with their goods

How can you participate?

1. Attend on the day: $5 entrance fee
2. Offer an activity, share a craft, hobby or interest, please register your activity with Dale Starr (starrdw@internode.on.net) (Setup 9:00 am)

3. Donate Goods for the Auction:

- that 'special tool' which you will never get round to using or you have bought two
- that unusual/exotic piece of timber that will not mount on your lathe or you are not sure where to use
- a gift that was duplicated but others could use
- Useful household, leisure materials
- Approach the business you work for to see if they can donate any goods

(Please bring these goods on the day or pass onto to any member of NT committee beforehand).

4. Enter 'Show and Tell' on the day

5. Donate to the Cancer Council (donation boxes on tables)

Attendance fee is $5 for all attendees with all proceeds, after rent costs to be donated to the Cancer Council

What do I do now?

1. Register for attendance with Dale Starr (starrdw@internode.on.net)
2. Register your intent to offer an activity with Dale Starr (starrdw@internode.on.net)
3. Register your ability to provide some foodstuffs on the day contact Jan Beare (janbeare@chariot.net.au)

Cancer has affected all of us in some way so please support this fundraising event and the Cancer Council and join in.
